of Faith*

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them. Ephesians 2:8-10

Stephen Preaches the Bible, Part Two:
“But God Was With Him”
Acts 7:9-16

When we were last in Acts 7:1-8, we saw from Stephen’s sermon on the faith of Abraham that our God is a glorious God, a promise-keeping God, and a covenant-keeping God. Today we will be looking at Stephen’s account of Joseph, and making the following observations from the text:

5. Stephen’s sermon is not an _____ sermon; it is a _____ sermon.
6. Stephen takes on the role of “covenant _____.”
7. Stephen’s purpose is to show the religious leaders their _____ and covenant-breaking.
8. Stephen points them to Joseph and the patriarchs to show a number of _____ to Christ and the people of Israel.

Take Aways:

- As the people of God, we must be aware that we are still liable to idolatry and falling short of God’s glory.
- We must also be aware that sometimes sermons with a hard edge are necessary in order to break up the hardened fallow ground of the human heart.
- This type of preaching is preparatory to the preaching of the Gospel.

Baptist Catechism "On the Lord's Prayer"

Question 117: What do we pray for in the sixth petition?

Answer: In the sixth petition, which is, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil," we pray that God would either keep us from being tempted to sin, or support and deliver us when we are tempted.

Scripture: Matthew 6:13; 26:41; Psalm 19:13; 1 Corinthians 10:13; John 17:15.

Question 118: What does the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer teach us?

Answer: The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, which is, "For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, Amen," teaches us to take our encouragement in prayer from God only, and in our prayers to praise him, ascribing kingdom, power, and glory to him; and in testimony of our desire, and assurance to be heard, we say AMEN.

Scripture: Matthew 6:13; Daniel 9:18, 19; 1 Chronicles 29:11-13; 1 Corinthians 14:16; Philippians 4:6; Revelation 22:20.
